Ticketing – BLF

BLF recommends ticketing through the central Biggar Little Festival website and Box Office for most events other than for those with their own established ticketing websites or outlets.

Published ticket prices will include the £1.20 online box office fee (including vat).

(Eg. An event published at £16.20 in the program will include the £1.20 booking fee so the net organisers ticket revenue would be £15.)

We will supply you with a list of sold tickets on the day of your event. Event organisers are responsible for their own front of house and may sell further tickets on the door. Please arrange your own payment options e.g. cash only or card reader.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Please note the festival committee reserves the right not to register an event which they consider to be inappropriate or outside of the scope of the festival.

Listing fee

The Biggar Little Festival events listing fee is £25. This includes administration, listing in the printed program and inclusion in online promotion via the BLF platforms. For BLF ticketed events, there is no further charge for multiple listings from one event organiser. The registration fee should be paid either by cheque payable to 'Biggar Little Festival' or by electronic bank transfer to BLF account number 00732399, sort code 83 16 11. Where tickets are being produced and sold by BLF there will also be a fee of 5% of the total ticket sales deducted by BLF. This sum shall be deducted from the amount owed to the event organiser at the end of the festival.

Event organisers are free to opt out of BLF box office facilities and sell their tickets through their own channels. Non BLF tickets events will have a registration fee of £25 per event, capped at a maximum of £50 for multiple listings. The fee is non-refundable if a cancellation is made after information has been sent to the designer of the program.

Deadline for Registrations

The deadline for registering your event for this year's Biggar Little Festival is Monday 18th March 2024. If your event is not yet finalised, please ensure that your Registration Form is returned before the deadline with as much detail as you can provide in draft to ensure inclusion in planning and program.

Dates and times

The Festival runs from Friday 18th to Sunday 27th October 2024. Events registered should be within this timeframe. Additional events outside this timeframe may be considered under exceptional circumstances and will be assessed on a case to case basis. If you are able to have some flexibility about when your event can take place, e.g. afternoon, this will help the Committee to coordinate a program which will give audiences a good chance to attend a range of activities and performances.

Publicity

Details of all registered Festival events will be included in the printed Festival Program, on the Festival website and on BLF Social Media where every event will be included in at least one post. Adjustments made after the deadline are not guaranteed to appear in the advertising material.

Individuals and groups organising events are also responsible for publicising their own event and encouraged to share BLF Social Media posts. For events run as part of the Festival Program, the BLF logo should be included in all publicity. We can provide you with a copy of the logo if you need one. Please note the BLF logo should not be altered in any way without the express permission of the festival committee.

BLF Committee will run a central publicity and information point during the Festival which will include copies of posters, fliers etc provided by individuals and groups organising their own events. Please also send a PDF of your event poster if you have one. Individual and groups are responsible for distributing their own publicity to any other local outlets. BLF Committee will also include general Festival publicity in various events listings (press, listings magazines, social media and relevant websites).

Venues

Individuals and groups organising events to run as part of the Festival are responsible for booking the venue and meeting all costs relating to the booking. BLF may be help with venue selection, on request. (Some contacts for local venues can be found at the end of this document)

Tickets/prices

The £1.20 booking fee (including vat) charged on tickets purchased online and at the BLF Box Office will be included in the published ticket price. If you have chosen for BLF to sell tickets for your event, you will notice an additional £1.20 will be added to the price quoted on your registration form. BLF will make it clear in the program and in publicity that the ticket price has incorporated the booking fee and no further fees will be added to this sum.

We will supply you with a list of sold tickets on the day of your event. Event organisers are responsible for their own front of house and may sell further tickets on the door. Please arrange your own payment options e.g. cash only or card reader.

Event organisers producing their own tickets are encouraged to have tickets available for sale (or bookable) from August.

Advertising Materials

Please send 2-3 photos/good quality jpegs with your registration, which could be used to promote your event in the printed program and/or online. Please ensure that you have the permission of anyone appearing in the photo. Posters will be accepted at a later date.

Public Liability Insurance

BLF is managed by a group of volunteer Trustees, as such we cannot provide Public Liability Insurance cover for any loss or damage for persons or property incurred by event organisers..

We strongly advise you to check with your host venue or your own insurance if using your home/business premises, to establish what insurance is provided and buy additional cover if required. BLF cannot be held responsible for any equipment, art work or persons loss, damage or injury as a result of a BLF performance, exhibition or event.

Financial Loss

BLF cannot cover any financial loss incurred by an event organiser or host venue as the result of participation in the festival. BLF strongly recommends that event organisers consider seeking sponsorship/funding for their event if they feel there is a risk of financial loss.

Health and Safety

Organisations and individuals organising events are responsible for ensuring that they meet Health and Safety requirements for their event(s) and need to be sure that they have thought about all possible risks and how to deal with them.

The Protection of Vulnerable Groups

Scottish Legislation covers the requirement for people undertaking regulated work with children or protected adults to become a member of the PVG (Protecting Vulnerable Groups) Scheme. Further information about the scheme and membership of it, is available from Disclosure Scotland on its web site at <https://www.disclosureScotland.co.uk/> or by phone at: 0870 609 6006.

Event organisers working with vulnerable groups will have full responsibility for ensuring that they comply with the requirements of the PVG scheme and if applicable hold the necessary disclosure certificate at the time of their event. BLF strongly recommends that anyone considering organising an event which may involve vulnerable groups consider the terms and implications of the PVG scheme, details of which can be found on the above website.

Public Entertainment Licences

Individuals and groups organising and running their own events as part of the Festival are responsible for obtaining a public entertainment licence where appropriate. You are advised to check with the venue which you are using whether or not such a licence will be required. Please make sure you or the venue also hold a Music Licence if this is required.

Cancellation of Registration/ Application

The fee is non-refundable if a cancellation is made after information has been sent to the designer of the program.

General information and advice

Please speak to a member of BLF Committee in the first instance if you or your group need any information on organising and running your Festival event. If we are not able to answer your question or assist directly ourselves, we will try and put you in touch with someone who can.

Thank you for your co-operation – we're looking forward to your involvement in Biggar Little Festival 2024.
